Recommend to Sign?:

Yes

Recommendation Description:

Filip Thorvaldsen has a specific profile of direct winger who can instigate and win dribbling duels at high rate. Goal threat, able to cut inside to take shots and to go on the outside to cross the ball to the penalty area for a team mate to finish it in goal. Vision and creativity to play with team mates even positioning himself in middle zones of the attack to combine in tight spaces favouring strong in-possession control. He shows high intensity and has physical attributes to undertake repetitive sprints and cover large spaces with in and out of possession of the ball and counter press. Able to instigate counters with direct runs and vertical player comfortable playing at both sides of the wing with good versatility. He ends up contract in summer 28 and the current price market is 2 million euro.
